Art Unit: 3728

1. The reply filed on September 6, 2005 is not fully responsive to the prior Office Action because of the following omission(s) or matter(s): While applicant indicated the election of Figure 1, there was no listing of all claims readable on the elected species, as required. See 37 CFR 1.111. Also, in view of applicant's arguments with respect to the methods of claims 55-57, it would appear that these methods are not considered by applicant to be obvious methods of using the claimed product, but patentable methods separately patentable on their own merits. Accordingly, the additional restriction requirement is made below

2. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

- I. Claims 1-54, drawn to a hand sanitizing product and packet, classified in class 206, subclass 210.
- II. Claim 55, drawn to a method of promoting hand hygiene, classified in class 510, subclass 138.
- III. Claim 56, drawn to a method of advertising, classified in class 40, subclass 326.
- IV. Claim 57, drawn to a method of distributing a packet, classified in class 206, subclass 459.5.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

Art Unit: 3728

3. Inventions I and II are related as product and process of use. The inventions can be shown to be distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) the process for using the product as claimed can be practiced with another materially different product or (2) the product as claimed can be used in a materially different process of using that product (MPEP § 806.05(h)). In the instant case the product as claimed can be used in a materially different process of use such as employing the fluid product on other parts of the body without using both hands.

4. Inventions I and III are related as product and process of use. The inventions can be shown to be distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) the process for using the product as claimed can be practiced with another materially different product or (2) the product as claimed can be used in a materially different process of using that product (MPEP § 806.05(h)). In the instant case the product as claimed can be used in a materially different process of using such as providing information other than advertising on the insert.

5. Inventions I and IV are related as product and process of use. The inventions can be shown to be distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) the process for using the product as claimed can be practiced with another materially different product or (2) the product as claimed can be used in a materially different process of using that product (MPEP § 806.05(h)). In the instant case the product as claimed can be used in a materially different method of use such as maintaining the packet in one's possession without access to any other of the population.

6. Inventions II and III are related as subcombinations disclosed as usable together in a single combination. The subcombinations are distinct from each other if they are shown to be separately usable. In the instant case, invention III has separate utility such as use with a packet having other than a hand sanitizing product. See MPEP § 806.05(d).

7. Inventions II and IV are related as subcombinations disclosed as usable together in a single combination. The subcombinations are distinct from each other if they are shown to be separately usable. In the instant case, invention IV has separate utility such as use with a packet having other than a hand sanitizing product. See MPEP § 806.05(d).

8. Inventions III and IV are related as subcombinations disclosed as usable together in a single combination. The subcombinations are distinct from each other if they are shown to be separately usable. In the instant case, invention III has separate utility such as individual personal use without distributing amongst the population. See MPEP § 806.05(d).

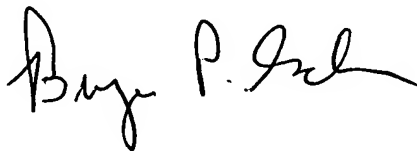

Art Unit: 3728

9. Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).
